at U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Email: Eduardo.E.Gesio@HUD.gov

Eduardo Gesio recently joined the Department of Housing and Urban Development's Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity and he is based out of the Region V Headquarters in Chicago. He is a Presidential Management Fellow and his duties include: complaint investigation, legal opinions, and he is currently serving as the Latino Outreach Coordinator for Region V. Within fair housing, he is particularly interested in discriminatory impact theory and banking and lending issues as they relate to minority communities.

Mr. Gesio graduated Cum Laude from Florida International University, College of Law, and also has an MA in International Relations Theory and Latin-American Studies – his research has focused on Indigenous Human Rights Law, specifically in relation to issues of indigenous peoples' sovereignty and their access to international legal fora. He is fluent in English and Spanish.
